

Nominated Elders

Dirk Bloxham

Dirk grew up in California's Central Valley, in the small town of Modesto. He accepted Christ at 16 and was baptized at the First Baptist Church of Modesto. From that small town he left the USA for the first time at age 25 to do a missions study trip in Nepal. It was during this time he made his first visit to Thailand. The same year while studying a Missions tape course in Egypt, Dirk's call to live and work in Thailand became very clear to him. Now, 27 years later, Dirk continues to live in Thailand, with his wife Thanom, in Nonthaburi and owns and operates a business in firefighting and industrial equipment. Their three daughters, two of whom attended ISB are grown and live in Thailand and Singapore together with their husbands. Dirk came to CCC nearly 18 months ago, again with God's leading, after spending his time attending and serving in Thai churches. Dirk embraces the opportunity to be an Elder, working together to fulfill the vision of CCC where disciples make disciples and leaders make leaders while following Christ in faith and obedience.

Bard Kimball

Bard trusted in Jesus and was baptized when he was 21 years old as a soldier serving in South Korea. Over the past 21 years God has strengthened his faith and understanding of the power of the Gospel in everyday life. Bard and his family came to Bangkok in July 2017. He currently serves as a Life Group leader and Sunday School Teacher and is excited to be a part of the men's Bible Study Fellowship. He and his wife, Andrea, have been married for 16 years and have been blessed with 7 children: Mathis, Kate, Jackson, Emerson, Eliza, Emmalyne, and Elliot.

Levi Renno

Levi Renno and his wife, Jessica, both came to know the Lord at a young age and were blessed to both grow up in loving Christian homes. After having met in high school, they both attended Liberty University and were married shortly thereafter. They now have three boys and are seeking to raise them in the same loving Christian environment they were afforded. The Rennos have been honored to call CCC their church home since moving to Thailand in 2016. Through consistent Biblical preaching and the amazing community fellowship at CCC they have experienced spiritual growth and are privileged to have an opportunity to give back to the CCC family. Levi and Jessica seek to be authentic followers of Christ, recognizing they are flawed and sinful, but relying on God's mercy and grace for every day.

Jake Sauer

Jake came to know Jesus as his Lord and Savior when he was 19 years old as a student at Messiah College. He has been blessed to be discipled throughout his Christian walk by faithful men of God who impressed on him the need to really know God's Word. He has a passion for guarding Biblical doctrine and for the church being rooted and grounded in the Scriptures. Jake and his family came to Bangkok in July 2016 and he currently serves as an elder. He continues to be humbled by the opportunity to serve the body of CCC in this manner. He and his wife, Jennifer, have been married for 14 years and have been blessed with 5 children: Grace, Samuel, Jack, Gunnar and Brandt.
